Established with the motto of 'No Shortcuts to Success, Hardwork pays off', Display Ur Talent (DYT) is an online portal that allows aspiring actors to register with their online agency for a lifetime membership of Rs 2,000. In a simple process, the casting agencies or any other clients of similar nature are provided with the DYT ID of the actor, which created upon registration. The unique Talent ID contains a profile picture, audition links, portfolio and show reel of the actor. On the commencement and success of DYT, co-founder and director Ravi Ahuja says, "DYT started in 2015 with the idea to help artists get work in an organised way. We were initially criticised for charging a small registration fee claiming we would be fraudulent, but that is how we found ground. My first talent was Khushboo Sharma who got cast in a short film with Dainak Bhaskar Group. As a talent scout, I attended plays to the actors, casting directors and production houses and understood their exact nature of requirement and started sending the talents accordingly." One can register on www.dyt.co.in
